

however to themselves the privilege of acting in relation to those measures in such manner as they may deem advisable.

By Order, Wm. Kilty, Clk.

Mr. Kennedy moved to amend the message by inserting after the word 'the' the word 'any.'

The senate adjourned until to-morrow morning, 9 o'clock.

Thursday, March 13th, 1828.

The Senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The senate proceeded to the consideration of the message offered by Mr. Heath last night with the amendment offered to the same by Mr. Kennedy, in these words, to wit: after the word 'the,' insert the word 'any.'

Mr. Heath offered the following as a substitute, which was read and rejected.

Gentlemen of the house of delegates,

The senate have received your message proposing to rescind the joint order of the two houses, so far as to authorise the introduction of a 'bill to correct a defect in two deeds,' and accede to your proposition.

On motion the senate reconsidered the substitute, when Mr. Kennedy moved to amend the same as follows, after the word 'houses,' insert the words 'and concur therein, and have agreed to rescind the rule entirely,' and strike out the following words, 'so far as to authorise the introduction of a bill to correct a defect in two deeds, and accede to your proposition, which amendment was rejected.

The question was then put on the substitute offered by Mr. Heath, when the yeas and nays being required, appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Marriot pres't. Heath, Herbert,
Johnson, Whiteley.—5

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Dennis, Kennedy, Rees,
Sewell —4

Determined in the affirmative, and the message was sent to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a bill to incorporate the Port Deposit and Chesapeake Turnpike Road Company, which was read the first time and referred to the committee on internal improvement.

Also a bill to incorporate the Allegany Iron Company, which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Kennedy, Sewell and Whiteley.
